As a Producer I have created TV formats of some of Irelands best known and highest rated TV series. As a Line Producer I have overseen Irish adaptations of International formats and series for broadcasters such as BBC, MTV, BRAVO and NBC. These roles required me to assemble and lead teams of various sizes from prep to post. My role required me to monitor storylines, create and manage budgets, schedules, contracting, releases, negotiation of talent, crew and services contracts and publicity. I was also responsible for liaising with financiers and broadcaster partners in order to deliver quality projects on time and on budget.

I have and continue to learn about best code of practice through a variety of training courses on software, H&S, diversity and inclusion and story.
